

Σconomics Club

Second Meeting / Fall Term
Thursday, October 24, 2006 (5pm-6:00pm)
Stag 107

- Econ Club approved for renewal by the MU.
- econclub@onid.orst.edu
  - Ryan is looking into establishing the above address as the official Econ Club listserv
- Econ club mailbox (physical mailbox; located in the MU)
- Discussed current events:
  - Each week, a club member presents a current event for informal, analytical discussion.
  - Prof. Emerson's blog offers relevant topics (and some downright entertaining passages to boot) for presenters who are searching for current event ideas. Please find said blog here.
- Joe Heiberg is current event presenter for week 7.
- Discussed bringing in GUEST SPEAKERS
  - Discussed contacting State economists.
  - Emerson is currently "working on" President Ed Rey.
  - Emerson also mentioned contacting Sarah Gelser.
    - Who does Sarah Gelser go to for economic advice? Inquiring minds want to know.
      - Amy Walker volunteered to contact Gelser.
- Club is interested in hearing speakers who can give insight into econ-related careers. OSU economics professors are a viable source for this type of info.
  - Ryan Horton will be contacting OSU econ Prof. Star McMullen.
  - Allison Wallingford will contact "the Tremblays"
- The Econ Club officially recognizes Halloween as, well, a day in which we will not be having an Econ Club meeting. So, NO CLUB MEETING ON WED. OCT 31st. Going forward...
- Discussed the importance of strong or frequent communication between club members via email, papyrus roles, homing pigeons, smoke signals, etc. Joking aside, it is very important.
- Discussed online calendar: Do we have one?
- What type of field trip is feasible for the econ club?
  - Briefly discussed visit to Salem.
- Econ Club recruitment—visiting OSU economics classes during the Fall term:
  - Classes now being offered and members attempting to schedule visits:
    - 201: Intro Micro Ryan Horton

- 311: Intermediate Micro
- 330: Money and Banking (Ryan)
- 315: Intermediate Macro (Wade and Amy)
- 435: Public Economics (Amy and Allison)

- Points to touch on while recruiting

- Meeting times:
  - Wed. 5pm Stag 107
- One doesn't have to be econ major to be an Econ Club member.
- There are going to be interesting guest speakers.
- Being a part of the club is good for resume and grad school applications!

- If you volunteered, make sure you get in contact with your people.
- Stay up on your email.

Adjourn – meeting adjourned at 6:00pm.
