Fun with Intersection Graphs
A coloring book by Ally Stacey

Each picture is the intersection graph corresponding to the chord diagrams on the vertices. That is, the ways the dots are connected shows the way the lines inside the circles on the dots intersect each other. I made interesting shapes for the graphs then found the chord diagrams to make the shapes work as intersection graphs.

More of my artwork can be found at people.oregonstate.edu/~staceyal/gallery.html